Tl'etinqox Nen Coordinator

Classification: Full-Time

Salary: Commensurate with Experience

Location: Tl'etinqox (Anaham Reserve)

Deadline: March 31, 2020

Exciting opportunity to coordinate “nen” (water, land and resource) management and planning at a community-level, and prepare for implementation in collaboration with the T̓silhqot̓in National Government and the other five T̓silhqot̓in communities!

Tl'etinqox Government is currently hiring a full-time Community Nen (Water, Lands & Resources) Coordinator to join our team in Tl'etinqox. The successful candidate will be responsible for coordinating Nen planning in the community, working in coordination with the T̓silhqot̓in National Government (TNG) to develop a Nation-level Nen Use Plan, and ensuring that the Tl'etinqox voice is at the table.

The Community Nen Coordinator will also support community implementation of the groundbreaking tripartite framework agreement (Gwets'en Nilt'i Pathway Agreement). The Community Nen Coordinator is a critical component to the success of the work going forward, and is expected to bring a range of experience working effectively with First Nations on lands and resource issues, and to build off the commitments and work already accomplished through the Nenqay Deni Accord that was signed with the Province of BC in 2016.

The Community Nen Coordinator will bring a combination of community and Indigenous knowledge, awareness and sensitivity, and communications and technical education/experience in lands and natural resource management. The successful candidate will report to the Executive Director and work to implement the Tl'etinqox Land Use Plan. The Nen Coordinator will also work closely with TNG's community referral worker, and the Nen Planning Coordinator.

Main Responsibilities:

- Effectively engaging, communicating with, and reporting to Tl'etinqox members, and Tl'etinqox Chief and Council
- Implementing the Tl'etinqox Land Use Plan
- Collaborating with the TNG Nen Planning Coordinator, five (5) other Community Nen Coordinators and contractors, professionals, and experts retained to support the work of the Nation Level LUP.
- At a community-level, understanding and implementing the Gwets'en Nilt'i Pathway Agreement and Nenqay Deni Accord which outline how the T̓silhqot̓in Nation, the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia will work over the next 5 years to effect the transformation and change the fundamental relationship between the parties, including with respect to lands, waters and resources.

- Developing work-plans to help prioritize and begin the work needed by Tl'etinqox
- Developing, monitoring and being responsible for budgets
- Supporting and collaborating with the TNG Stewardship Department as it manages lands and resource issues
- Other duties as requested by Tl'etinqox Government

Qualifications and Professional Competencies:

- Respectful individual with demonstrated project management experience and the ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Combination of cultural knowledge and sensitivity with technical experience with lands and resources to develop the Nen Use Plan based on input from Tl'etinqox leadership, community members, and diverse range of input (e.g. cultural values, science, economics).
- Where technical experience on lands and resources may be lacking, sufficient computer knowledge and the right combination of cultural knowledge and willingness to learn will be considered.
- Excellent communication skills including public speaking and proposal/report preparation
- Combination of experience and education, with preference given to candidates who possess cultural knowledge and an education in planning, science, or lands/water-related fields.
- Strong working knowledge of Microsoft Office, especially Word, Outlook, Excel, PowerPoint
- Valid BC Driver's License, ability and willingness to travel to remote communities and travel to meetings outside of the region as required
- Reliable and insurable vehicle
- Proven record of successful working relationships with/for First Nations a strong asset, as well as successful experience working with other governments
- Flexible work schedule to partake in evening engagement sessions and events.
